

REMARKS

Upon review of the claims as amended and allowed by the Examiner, the Applicants discovered that the language of claim 47, clause (b) might be argued to be unclear. To obviate any basis to allege that claim 47 is unclear, the Applicants submit the present amendment.

This amendment, being in response to a review of the claims after allowance, could not have occurred before the allowance. Therefore, the Applicant respectfully submits that the amendment is timely.

Again, the Applicant respectfully thanks the Examiner for her diligence in examining the above-identified application.

CONCLUSION

The Applicants respectfully solicit an early issuance of the application, as amended.

It is not believed that extensions of time or fees for net addition of claims are required, beyond those that may otherwise be provided for in documents accompanying this paper.
